Quest for Knowledge

MR. EDWIN F. SHEWMAKE

Dedication

It is in the transition from realism to impressionism—from a green corduroy suit to a lab coat dyed blue—that he becomes our inspiration.

As he guides the brush on the canvas, he directs the mind toward contact with reality. In art labs, his tape recorder keeps students informed of the "latest." He is a man of emphasis; he admires graphics, Dagwood, and pop art.

Because he is easy-going, those who are around him soon discover the instinctive friendliness of the man. Avoid the mention of Norman Rockwell, and he will remain friends.

He's an "Oh, by the way" man, this fellow with the pipe. He allows us to know him, to laugh with him, to be ourselves with him.

"Create," he says.

Because he has served as a welcome challenge and a beloved addition to Salem, we dedicate the 1966 edition of SIGHTS AND INSIGHTS to Mr. Edwin Shewmake.

*He is as wise and discreet
As any man I know of his degree.*

*Or to some coffee-house I stray,
For news, the manna of a day,
And from the hipp'd discourses gather
That politics go by the weather.*

Take a trip to Toronto. Or Trinidad. Or Thailand.
Almost anywhere you go, you'll find Hanes.

From Zambia to Zanesville, Okinawa to Omaha, wherever you travel you'll find people know and appreciate the fine quality of Hanes products.

And you'll find you can buy Hanes in some of the most remote parts of the world.

But you don't have to travel to faraway places.

Chances are you'll find the Hanes products you need right near home.

Because Hanes is everywhere.

that you are graduating into one of the most promising areas of the nation?

A recent urban research study forecasts "a linear city" for the 300 miles stretching through the industrial Carolinas. Here, in the 20,000 square miles served by Duke Power, scores of thriving towns connect busy cities. Research centers, colleges and universities, and hundreds of industries thrive.

Here in the Carolinas Crescent, there is real challenge and opportunity. There is a place for you to fill, a job for you to do, in an exciting future that begins —right now.
